MARKET IS A HUMMER.

Eggs, fresh from the hen, sold for twenty-three cents a dozen yesterday at the monthly East Hammond livestock and farm product market. Fowls of all kinds was lower than the market price.

The Standard district entertained eight hundred strangers, an unheard of number for this time of year. The market was not so good as the one before but nevertheless interesting.

James Frost, state humane officer, had condemned and shot, three horses that were unfit for sale.
